Welcome

Standing proudly in the heart of Newcastle's city centre is the Royal Station Hotel, a true piece of North East History.

Designed by renowned Newcastle architect, John Dobson, and opened by Queen Victoria in 1850, this grand railway hotel and iconic grade II-listed property has retained many beautiful original features, including tremendous crystal chandeliers, sweeping staircases, fireplaces, and vast windows, providing a classic, elegant backdrop making it an ideal location from which to say, 'I do'.

With various rooms available for hire, there's space to enjoy your wedding day and night surrounded by family, friends, and loved ones at the Royal Station Hotel. For those looking for an evening-only location, Royal Station is just a short stroll from the medieval St Mary's Cathedral and the nearby registry office.

Whether you require an informal ceremony or a lavish wedding celebration, our dedicated team are available to help plan every element of your wedding celebration.

Balmoral

Named after the Royal Family's intimate hideaway in Scotland, hold your private ceremony with those you hold most dear in the romantic, historic and perfectly preserved Balmoral Suite.

Filled from top to bottom with original Victorian delights, the Balmoral features original parquet flooring and wall panelling, two large fireplaces inlaid with emerald green tiles and black marble, and a stunning ceiling with embellished intricate plaster mouldings. The large bay windows face Stephenson Monument and allow natural light to cascade through the room.

This stunning room is suitable for up to 60 for the ceremony, and 30 for a seated wedding breakfast.

Victoria

Named after Queen Victoria, the Victoria Suite is perfect for large and lavish wedding celebrations in settings fit for royalty.

This grand, beautiful ballroom with generous proportions is the largest room for hire with plenty of space to marry, dine, and celebrate. Suitable for up to 160 for the ceremony, 130 for a seated wedding breakfast, and 200 for an evening reception.

The room, which is decorated with soft creams and golds, features an impressive ceiling with original, intricate plaster moulding and is wrapped with large bay windows giving you the additional backdrop of Newcastle's impressive neighbouring architecture and Stephenson Monument.

The room also holds its own bar and dance floor, allowing you to take your celebrations with friends and family into the night.

Dobson

Marry beneath the clock in this unique wood-paneled ceremony room, named after John Dobson, a local 19th-century architect who designed many of Newcastle's most famous buildings, including the Royal Station Hotel and Central Station.

Collingwood

A grand ballroom that nods to the 1920s, accessed by its own impressive staircase. Named after Newcastle's Collingwood Street and Newcastle-born Admiral Lord Collingwood, the hero of the battle of Trafalgar.

Grainger

A sunshine-filled room with neutral decor that can be dressed to suit any taste. Named after Newcastle's Grainger town, one of the best examples of Georgian architecture in Britain and designed by Newcastle-born Richard Grainger.

Dining

Canapés

Usually teamed with a celebratory glass of bubbles, a canapé (or two) can keep your wedding guests' hunger at bay ahead of a sumptuous wedding breakfast.

Seated

Delicious elevated classics, that cater to all tastes. Consists of a starter, main and dessert course per guest.

Sharing

Moreish Mediterranean sharing platters for up to 10 people for a more casual wedding breakfast that encourages conversation between guests.

LGBTQ+ Weddings

We are strong advocates for marriage equality at the Royal Station Hotel.

Whether you are getting married, converting your civil partnership to marriage, or holding a civil partnership ceremony, celebrate your union and throw a party to remember at our historic venue.

The Royal Station Hotel is within close proximity to the Pink Triangle, making it the perfect location for a whole day ceremony or evening-only reception. Whichever you decide, our friendly and experienced staff are ready to help you plan your dream wedding.

Afternoon Tea

Enjoy a deliciously indulgent, traditional afternoon tea at the Royal Station Hotel the day before or after your wedding.

Serving an array of sweet and savoury treats including scones with clotted cream and jam, cakes and delicious sandwiches, perfectly complemented with your choice of tea, coffee, hot chocolate, or glass of fizz!

Stay A While...

Sleep

Unwind after a full day and night of celebrations in one of the Royal Station Hotel's 145 classically designed and comfortable bedrooms, with modernised facilities, including TV, complimentary WIFI, hairdryer, tea and coffee facilities, and an ensuite bathroom.

Dine

Delicious food and drinks are served at the Empire restaurant and bar. Enjoy tasty, honest food, friendly company, and good cheer in cosy surroundings. We believe in flavour over fuss, serving traditional Sunday roasts, classic afternoon teas, healthy options, and modern favourites including pizzas, burgers, and light bites that the whole family can enjoy.

Unwind

The Royal Station Hotel's leisure centre features a fully equipped gym, heated indoor swimming pool, jacuzzi, sauna and steam room. The perfect addition to any city centre stay.
